Free Gif Maker Free Download X64

Free Gif Maker is a software that enables you to create GIF animations from images. The program, that offers custom sizing features for the image frames, is intuitive and easy to use. The most intriguing feature of the program: it will take a photo of your face, analyze the image and use the results to create a cartoon face with the most original expression. As the software is completely freeware, that means that you can use it for free without any restrictions. Key Features: Create animated GIF images from BMP, JPEG, TIFF and PNG images; Create Gif animations with custom size frames and an endless number of frames; Using a built-in face recognition engine, the program will create funny images of your face; Speed has never been this impressive; Support of most popular graphic formats. Batch conversion of multiple images The software application under review permits you to convert multiple images to Gif format or any other supported format. Once you have made your selection, you can crop, resize and rotate the images, add your own text, take a snapshot of your current picture, and export it to several formats. The program comes with an easy-to-understand interface that will make it relatively fast and easy to use. Evaluation The simplicity and quickness of the interface, supported by the program's features, make it an interesting choice. The tool's speed and processing capabilities are its most important elements. The size of the conversion file is also a factor that should be taken into consideration. The program's file size is usually minimal, about 10 KB, which makes it ideal for mobile devices. The application comes with a short video guide that demonstrates the program interface. The software's free version features certain limitations, such as a minimal number of pictures that can be imported, but you can also get a pro version. Free Gif Maker Download 1. Free Gif Maker is a simple-to-use software application that enables you to put together GIF animations from images with other file types. It offers support for BMP, JPEG, TIFF and PNG, among other formats. Clear-cut interface and options Wrapped up in a user-friendly interface made from a large window with a neatly organized structure, the tool invites you to add as many images as you want to the task list and prepare them for processing. However, you should keep in mind that it's not possible to make a multiple file selection in the file browser. Instead, you must import one item at a time. Arrange the images and generate GIF animations You can check out the name and format of each frame, set the delay time (in seconds), indicate the photo size (100px, 125px, 300px, 400px wide or custom), arrange the files in any order in the list, remove any one of them if you change your mind, as well as play the animation in the main app window before exporting it to file. This can be done by simply pointing out the output file name and saving directory. Evaluation and conclusion Unsurprisingly, the software utility had minimal impact on computer performance during our tests, since it needed low CPU and RAM to work properly. It generated GIF animations swiftly, without triggering the operating system to hang, crash or prompt error messages. On the other hand, the program doesn't come equipped with richer options, such as transitions. Nevertheless, it gets the job done, offering a straightforward method for creating basic GIF animations from images with popular file extensions. It can be handled even by inexperienced users.
