Post-it Digital Notes is the application to create notes. These notes can be more than just words, they can be also photos, video files, voice memos, files and a lot more. Are you taking the notes that you can forget? Post-it Digital Notes will bring them to your desk, set them up and come back to them tomorrow. Features: Create new notes and set the direction Set a color and choose from 12 flavors Have notes cover the whole screen or leave some empty space Take a new note from random Change theme Set different timing for next note Add many different notes from many different categories Set a new timing to the note with just one click Set up to 4 alarms with an option to remove them as well Use Hotkeys to get to a note as quickly as possible Option to have the notes appear from one of 8 different directions Option to have the notes appear from one of 8 different directions Option to have the notes appear from one of 8 different directions Option to have the notes appear from one of 8 different directions Option to have the notes appear from one of 8 different directions Option to have the notes appear from one of 8 different directions Option to have the notes appear from one of 8 different directions Option to have the notes appear from one of 8 different directions Option to have the notes appear from one of 8 different directions Post-it Notes is a handy little application which lets you fill your desktop with reminders under the form of notes, to assure you that no task will be forgotten, or missed. Full animation makes it fun Right from the start, the application pops several notes on your screen, each coming in a different way. Everything you hover your cursor over will keep you a few seconds to see the whole animation. Even the option menu shows up from another direction each time. Not to mention, that when you create a new note, it randomly appears from somewhere in a certain style, accompanied by sound, which you can change, or leave the default, which is pretty fun to hear. Have no worries though, because it does not use much of the CPU speed to perform all of these. Various customization options Any note you decide to bring on screen can be personalized, with color, size, and even add images to make them look pretty. You will find an option to create a random colored note every time, in case you don't want to spend your time customizing 09e8f5149f
