For many religious people, this is the only time of the year that we all have the opportunity to show our faith together. In the case of families, children get to enjoy the entire spectacle. And if we are the ones preaching, then it's our job to make sure that every head is attentive to the good word being said. If we were to replace the phrase, "telling the truth to all the people," with the term, "recruiting," then this type of preaching would go a long way to make up for what we did when we were young. On the surface, you have most of the tools in the application at hand, making the whole thing compatible to various mobile devices. In a sense, you are using the same interface whether you are on a computer or a smartphone. Is it fluid? Of course. But what's the point?
