I - A Teoria Social da Literatura Como em uma oferta paralela ao que proponho aqui será recuperado o objeto do Um cujo desafio penso, a vida angustiada e a morte sob a forma de témoignage ocupam-se de investigações mais acesas às comodidades do cérebro. O tempo da leitura transita entre os tempos em que as prestações morais surgem como uma duplicidade pautada no interior de um desejo de vencer o tempo de sofrer. Pelo menos entre todos os textos discutidos, este sentido de sair rapidamente de si mesmo para fazer face à evidência da morte deve ser discernido como um estigma que constitui um dos grandes ardides da conduta humana. Diante, não há com quem podemos estar só da parte do anonimato - assumindo-nos o desamparo e o abandono. Neste levar a morte à escala da criminalização do cogito, constitui-se também a figura polêmica de Saul Bellow. Quase, por perfeita. A Teoria Social da Literatura foi escrita em 1946, é composta por duas partes: a primeira centraliza a passagem da literatura no espírito do romancista, a segunda centra-se sobretudo na interpretação de dois autores que comp

He is my God, I will exalt Him; my fathers trusted in Him, and so do I." (Psalm 118:14,15) What happened today: I felt really down this week, dealing with some personal problems - I can't share them without sounding like a whining child - and I felt really discouraged about the next week of our itinerary. I guess that's one of the disadvantages of being so overloaded with training and having new students - now that it's time to make new plans, I don't really know what to do. I gave a picture of the Lord in Elisha's life. I was thinking about how he didn't get to see Elijah's miracles - after all, they only had seventy days to go. But Elisha did see the results. He saw the results of the prophet's ministry. If you look in the story, Elisha goes up with the other boys and looks in the pot and sees the ravens and the bread. When you know the Lord is at work, you can feel it. You know what else you can feel? A high - a real, tangible, undeniable sense of joy. When your heart is full of expectation, when your heart is filled with the
