FIFA is the world's leading sports video game franchise, and the only one to sport the official licence to FIFA, UEFA and the Confédération Fédérale de Football Association. After over three decades in the video game industry, EA SPORTS continues to raise the bar with more authentic licensed experiences that feature authentic commentary, leagues, stadiums and players. EA SPORTS FIFA is the #1 selling football video game in North America. FIFA is number one in all regions and every platform. There are over 300 million copies of FIFA sold worldwide, and the game is available in more than 150 territories and 25 languages. Modern Player Intelligence For the first time in the franchise, the A.I. (Artificial Intelligence) in FIFA is informed and motivated by a real-world database of behaviours. This means that players make realistic decisions based on their past performance, understanding who they are playing against, how they want to play and what works best for them. Whether you're trying to master your favourite position on the pitch or show off your creative skills to the world, these fundamental gameplay advances will add a new sense of strategy and tension to every single match. Pitch Intelligence Every player has a unique core skill, so every game is different. In FIFA 22, new Pitch Intelligence gives A.I. (Artificial Intelligence) for football a field-by-field understanding of how players interact and influence the game. From corner kicks and free kicks to key moments and counter-attacks, the Pitch Intelligence shows players when to advance, when to move back and how to perform individual skills more intelligently. New Pitch intelligence also provides a more realistic insight into how you can influence gameplay. First-Ever Ambitious Mode FIFA is introducing the first ever "aggregate mode". Now you'll be able to put your career-long achievements to the test. With a new convenient selection mechanism, you can select from over 50 unique career paths to lead any player to their first FIFA World Cup™ victory. Plus, there's never been a more fertile career market where your skills matter. Each career path has a new level of complexity, offering a unique experience depending on your skill and determination. New Ways to Be Yourself Your favourite team and favourite players are back, with over 1,000 unique player attributes to create your ideal fantasy team. Equip any player or

New card sets in FIFA Ultimate Team will be coming to life with a new look. Build and customize the ultimate squad from cards in the new FIFA Ultimate Team card set, now with new team kits. A total of over 1,000 cards will be included in this card set, including players, managers, players from all 32 teams in FIFA 22, and new player cards from all three modes: Career, Draft, and League. FIFA 22 introduces changes to the way FIFA Ultimate Team works - a handful of new cards will be released across all card types and card sets, including new player cards, and new player variants. From the FUT 22 Roster Updates Preview, "We're introducing an arsenal of new tools and content with the FUT Roster Updates. Starting with a new way to win virtual trophies and continuing with a series of virtual content updates, we're creating a more strategic and rewarding experience. This update is perfect for FIFA's avid FUT community." A new set of stadiums and kits will be available in the FUT 22 Release Day pack. The FIFA 22 release day pack is available 24 hours prior to the game's global release. FUT 22 also introduces Create-a-Pro, which will enable fans to create their own custom star players and compete with real players in FUT competitions. MatchDay - Featuring a brand-new matchday editor, players and managers can perform 360° post-goal celebrations, score a goal to win a point, or assist teammates in breaking through pressure, then you can even send the assist to a friend in an "Assist with a Friend" game. LiveFeatures - FIFA 22 continues to push the envelope of innovation on the LiveFeatures experience. LiveFeatures, now based on a new gameplay engine, includes a new dynamic setting, new weather effects, more animated crowds, and more. For a full look at all the LiveFeatures, watch the FIFA 22 Long Live Demo. Pro Evo Mode - A completely new way of playing and training, Pro Evo Mode gives you the same experience you have in a FIFA Pro Evolution Soccer game, but at a much faster pace. Players can stand directly behind the ball to expertly control it or follow their teammates through space and space, with the new control scheme putting the ball in a position just right for them. Players can unleash shots from any angle or even shoot with their heads, and the ball will react to contact
