to drive? You can change it to something that's more consistent, like "I want to take a decision every hour." Or, "I want to take a decision at most every other hour." There's a choice of options and it's really for you to choose which one works best for you. You can set a goal. Let's say that every day you like to get a full day of work done. That might be another thing to set up. How to add a simple Daily To-Do List for Mac To-Do Lists are very similar to To-Do Lists. They're basically things you want to get done in a day.
They're things you usually don't want to think about, but you want to make sure you get done. You would use it for the things you don't want to do. For example, that monthly newsletter you need to get published, but you don't want to think about it. You need to delegate it to your assistant for a few days to get done. There are a few ways to do it. But to add a Daily To-Do List for Mac, you just need to follow a step by step tutorial. It won't take you more than a couple of minutes to setup. 1. Create the To-Do List
The first
