6/6 "An extraordinary game that I've ever played in my life," Kim Young-kwan, Global Game Strategist "An excellent RPG that will blow you away and make you want to play more." Kim Tae-dong, Opera CEO "I love this game. It's much more fun than the average game." Kim Tae-soo, Fashion Editor "The best RPG ever made. It's a masterpiece." Choi Hun-joo, Activist "The best RPG I have ever played. The level of storytelling is unreal." Kim Ha-jin, Korean TV and Internet Broadcaster "I think I have spent so much time playing this game. It has a very unique and lovely atmosphere." Kim Moon-sik, CEO of Next Media "I think it's a fullfledged Super Smash Bros., but for RPGs." Kim Young-hoon, Fashion Journalist "I'm now totally hooked on this game. The game and soundtrack will be perfect for the winter." Kim Hye-soo, Director of Encycpedia "This game is on a whole different level." Lee Young-joo, Consultant for Moon Group "This game has a very unique atmosphere." Lee Jong-kang, CEO of SBS "The game is amazing." Lee Eung-chul, Screenwriter "The graphics are great. It's not just a turn-based action game. This is an RPG." Lee Jong-kang, CEO of Samsung Motors and President of Kia Motors "This is one of those games that make you cheer." Lee Seung-gi, Writer "The game is on a whole different level. It's one of those games I'm going to play for years." Lee Seung-hyun, Actor "The game is awesome. I'm going to play this game from now on." Lee Dong-gun, Actor "Since most games I've played up until now were turnbased, I was a little worried. But it's not a turn-based RPG. This is a realtime RPG with a very very well-crafted story. I've never played anything like it before in my life. Maybe this is why it's difficult to play and RPGs have a tendency to make you addicted." Lee Ho-jung, CEO of Doosan Group "I've never found a game like this before. I wish all games were like this." Choi Gye-ryong, CEO of Smack Entertainment "The gameplay is excellent. For example, smart cards may be used in various sectors, such as electronic payment, health care, transportation, and computer-based information dissemination. Furthermore, mobile devices may be used in such sectors as well. The wireless transfer of data between a smart card and a mobile device is typically through a short-range RF (radio-frequency) interface having a communication range of about 5 m. However, there are various obstacles that hinder the reliable wireless transfer of data between a smart card and a mobile device. For example, whenever a smart card is carried by a person, the person may not be able to see the smart card, and the person may not be able to hear the smart card, such that the person may not be aware of the arrival of the smart card. The person may not be able to reach the device for retrieval of data from the smart card, such that the person may not be able to retrieve the data. Accordingly, there is a need for a new system that enables a smart card to reliably transmit data to a mobile device even when the person carrying the smart card is not able to hear the smart card and is not able to see the smart card.DUSP6 Dual specificity phosphatase 6 (DUSP6), also known as MAP kinase phosphatase 5 (MKP5), is a protein that in humans is encoded by the DUSP6 gene. DUSP6 is a member of the dual specificity protein phosphatase (DUSP) family. DUSP proteins are encoded by a multigene
