Parrot, Crazy White, and Roadster. You will hear in Volume 2 about Lewis & Clark. But they are surprised to learn that their communities of old have been completely destroyed by toxic water runoff from mining operations. The native fish in the area have also been affected. "So these old pioneers are like, 'OK, we had a comfortable life,'" Biella says. "This is how it's supposed to be. This is how it's always been." Biella notes that, as an example, the St. Croix River up in Burlington, which was once a beautiful waterway, is now toxic. "The Columbia River is more polluted than it has ever been, and I think it's very important for people to be able to have an open mind to learning more about. Of course, this is the work of the camera,

If this is a working screen, try to save it to the computer. (If you use a touchscreen with a stylus, see the next tip: If you can't see the screen, or if the screen is frozen, try pressing the Volume. Pressing the Volume Up/Down will change the volume of your computer's speaker or headphones. Pressing the Volume Up or Down once will get you a Volume Control menu. Here, if you can't see it, you can try turning the volume on or off. Volume Up/Down is the easiest option, though. Fix the camera: If you're using a cable, it is a good idea to disconnect both the camera and computer from your power source. If you need to connect the camera to something else, make sure that you're
