Sir David Steel, who became a crossbench elder statesman as Lord Steel of Aikwood, has said he regrets voting to remain a member of the European Union in the 2016 referendum. The former Labour deputy prime minister used the paper's Q&A column to explain how and why he did what he did on June 23, 2016, during the campaign that defeated the Leave campaign. "I've had some contemplation on that," Sir David said. "I have guite suddenly come to realise that there was one mistake I made."
