Auer Success.6

while she did have a few outstanding performances, auer wasnt nearly as strong at the tournament as she was in 2017. it started out well enough, with a goal in the first period against finland and a nice assist in the first game against russia. auer exploded for a five-point night in the second game against sweden, tying a u.s. women's hockey record for points in a tournament with five. "its been a rollercoaster with the team," auer said. "i played a good freshman year, but i really struggled my sophomore year. it was a year of growth for me, and i wanted to do something special in my junior year. i wanted to grow as a player and a person. my coaches and my teammates have been wonderful the whole way. i had a really good summer and a good season. its just not been the kind of year i thought it was going to be." auer has been part of an athletic family, and with people like john surack stepping forward to help fund a new complex, its perfect timing for auer to get the chance to play another u.s. team before she goes to college. having been on the world cup circuit for more than a decade, auer said hes a little rusty after being off the course for a year and a half. hes not back to racing shape. but hes really happy with the season. its a lot of fun to be back on the world cup. hes still a rookie, but hes got the confidence, said auer. i feel like im a world champion already. i feel like ive been a world champion for a long time. im feeling good about the season. i feel like im going to do a lot of good things.
